

Gregory, the Terrible Eater
p 1. Who is this story about?
p 2. What kind of eater was Gregory?
If Gregory were a person, what kind of eater would he be, good or terrible?
p 4. Tin can, box, piece of rug, bottle caps. What kind of food is that?
p 6. Name some foods that Gregory wanted?
Are these healthy foods for people or goats?
p 7. Revolting. That is what Father Goat thought of the kind of food Gregory liked. What do you think revolting means?
Do you think Father Goat was glad or upset that Gregory liked people food?
p 8. What is the problem in the story?
p 9. What type of food is Gregory thinking of?
How do you know he is thinking of these foods and not saying the names of them?
p 10. For breakfast mother and father are eating pants and a coat. What does Greg want?
p 11. What does Father Goat think they should do to solve the problem?
p 12. Where is Gregory?
What is the doctor's name?
What do you think the doctor will do to get Gregory to eat goat food?
p 16. What did Mother Goat do to get Gregory to start to like goat food?
p 18. What is the problem now?
p 21. Where did Mother and Father Goat go?
Why did his parents go to the dump?
p 23. After Gregory eats everything his parents brought from the dump, how does he feel?					